Dear Colleagues,

national vascular medicine societies of 13 countries comprising approx. 5.000 members, have been united in the European Society for Vascular Medicine (ESVM). We are excited to announce the 1st Annual Congress of the ESVM under the presidency of Professor Sigrid Nikol.

The scientific program aims at the harmonisation of vascular medicine in Europe. Thus, we want to learn from each other with practical workshops and courses, hands-on trainings, live case transmissions and scientific sessions.

Join us for this exciting congress May 10–12, 2015
